

Make a Japanese case

with Sue Doggett

In this workshop we will make a traditional-style Japanese folding case (Chitsu) which is covered in cloth and lined with decorative or plain paper and finished with bone clasps. It is an adaptable structure which can be used to house books and other objects.

Date: 13 November 2021
Time: 10.00am - 4.00pm
Cost: £30.00 (members £25.00)
Venue: Evington Village Hall
Hastingleigh, Near Wye
Kent TN25 5HR

To book a place on this workshop email Meg workshops@cinqueportsscribes.org.uk

For those of you who don't know Sue Doggett, she is an artist who creates hand-made books and bindings. She gained a first class honours degree in Visual Studies and Art History from Oxford Brookes University in 1985 and an MA in Design from Brighton University in 1998. She received the World Craft Council Award for Contemporary Craft in 1994 and was elected a Fellow of Designer Bookbinders in 1996. She has lectured and led workshops in book arts in the UK, Europe and the USA and delivers bookbinding/book arts courses at Camberwell College of Arts. Sue is co-ordinator of bookbinding and calligraphy courses at City Lit in London where she is also a bookbinding and book arts tutor. As an exhibiting Fellow of Designer Bookbinders, Sue works to public and private commission including the Man Booker Prize for Fiction and she is the current editor of 'The New Bookbinder' journal. Her work is represented in public and private collections in Europe and USA and can be seen at the Hyman Kreitman Research Library, Tate Britain; The Folger Library, Washington DC; Yale University Library, The Bodleian Library, Oxford; The Centre for Fine Print Research, Bristol and Manchester Metropolitan Museum.

To see more of her wonderful work, visit her website www.suedoggett.com

MATERIAL LIST

Book cloth for covering – at least half a metre

Plain or decorative lining papers one sheet of A2

PVA Glue

If you would rather not use the bone toggles to complete your case, you can use a wooden chopstick instead so please bring one of your choice.

Please bring the following:

A scalpel or craft knife

A large glue brush and a small square head brush

Dividers (tutor has a few but if you have them that would be helpful)

Steel ruler (tutor has a few but if you have one that would be helpful)

Bone folder (tutor has a few but if you have one that would be helpful)

Pencil

12mm chisel if you have one

Set square

Cutting Mat

Materials to be provided by Tutor on the day, with approximate cost per attendee

Grey board cut to size for A5 size box (£3.40)

Bone closures x 2 (£2.60 for 2)

£6.00 in total